

KNOW THE FACTS!

Halifax Is Burning is a show that is committed to championing independent music from Atlantic Canada. Period. From time to time we feature music from touring acts, but since the show is re-broadcast on stations across the country we avoid mentioning date-specific performances. This show airs live on Tuesday nights on CKDU and we play music, we don't review music.

EMAIL US!

Love hearing from you through the show's social channels – Facebook, Instagram, Twitter – but we will ALWAYS direct you to submit material through email.

ALWAYS SEND FILES!

We absolutely cannot play music from streaming services like Bandcamp, Spotify, or Soundcloud so always send us files if you're looking for airplay. MP3 files are preferred, and – if you can – attach them to the email. We will also accept links to download WAVs if you're an audiophile or something.

RETURN THE FAVOUR!

We always post Halifax Is Burning playlists on our website, and all our social channels. Sharing any of these links is most appreciated, and we'd encourage you tag our pages as you're doing so. In the meantime, go ahead and like our pages HERE, HERE, and HERE.

CONSIDER DONATING!

Halifax Is Burning is 100% volunteer-driven. We broadcast out of CKDU's facilities in Halifax, NS. If you think getting airplay on this show is valuable (and if you're getting in touch, you know it is), please consider making a contribution to our station or a campus/community station in your neck of the woods. This money helps the stations keep the doors open, the lights on, and the equipment up to spec. Quite frankly, these kinds of stations are the MOST likely to play music by emerging artists and are crucial to spreading the word about acts like yours. Making a one-time donation to show your love for this kind of programming is excellent karma.
